

Jamaica resort hosts Big on the Beach event for plus-size women

Full-figured women who feel self-conscious on the sand next to skinny Minnies now can strut their stuff, even in the buff. The first Big on the Beach event, June 12-20 at Hedonism II in Jamaica, is targeted at plus-size women and men who love them.

"Plus-sized members felt uncomfortable" at previous outings, says organizer Todd Crawford, chief of voodoolove.com. He also is hearing from lots of single men interested in large women. Rates start at $320 a night, double, including all meals, booze, parties and activities. You needn't stay a week or bare it all (though nude frolicking is allowed).
