

6th Annual Jamaica Restaurant Week is here

SSCo Event Management and The Gleaner Company have once again joined forces to present the Sixth Annual Restaurant Week, November 13-20 when 60 of Jamaica's best restaurants will offer specially selected three-course, fixed price dinner menus at significantly discounted prices.

Restaurant Week spans three cities, Kingston, Montego Bay and Ocho Rios, and this will give diners more opportunities to share in one of the island's most celebrated culinary experiences.

Categories

All participating restaurants will offer a choice of pre-selected three-course dinner menus. Restaurants will offer three-course meals (appetizer, main course and dessert) in one of five categories: "Tasty" dinner menus are $1,450 "Savory" are $1,750 "High Rollers" are $1,750 "Delectable" meals are $3,300 and "Epicurean" experiences are available for $3,800

Prices are per person, and do not include beverages, GCT (tax) or gratuity.

In addition, Restaurant Week will once again include an "Nightcaps & Roadsters" promotion whereby patrons of Restaurant Week will be given a cocktail 'on the house' at participating Kingston nightclubs.
