

Air Jamaica resumes flights from Miami to Jamaica

Starting Friday, December 9, 2011, Air Jamaica, operated by Caribbean Airlines, makes its return to Miami International.

The four times weekly service, will operate on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays. The introduction of this new service, comes ideally for the Christmas peak season, offering customers more travel options into and out of North America.

Caribbean Airlines CEO (Ag) Mr. Robert Corbie states, "The resumption of direct service to Miami by our Air Jamaica brand solidifies our commitment to offering our customers better connectivity to North America, providing more options to and from Florida from Jamaica. As the only regional carrier to offer non-stop services from Jamaica to three of Florida's major cities, Fort Lauderdale, Orlando and now Miami, we are a fundamental resource in Caribbean aviation. We believe in the added value of our product and continue to provide a reliable, flexible and dependable operation. Our added value package entitles our passengers to frequent flyer miles, two free pieces of checked baggage up to 50 lbs, in-flight entertainment and complimentary meals."

The non-stop Miami service begins its operations with return flights out of Jamaica on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays from 09 December 2011 till 07 January 2012. From 09 January 2012 – 30 January 2012, the return services will operate on Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays and daily services will be introduced from 01 February 2012.
