

Jamaican Patios and Haitian Creole Linguists Needed In Florida

Diplomatic Language Services (DLS), a 25-year old company based in the Washington, DC metro area that provides language and cultural training and other related language services to US government and commercial clients.

DLS is a fast-growing and dynamic organization offering exceptional career potential.

They currently have openings for qualified linguists in Haitian-Creole, and Jamaican Patois. Candidates must be U.S. Citizens or Permanent Residents in order to apply.

Translators will provide one or more of the following support services:

- Monitor foreign language communications and perform verbal and/or written summaries into English
- Translate target language documents into English
- Transcribe target language communications into written English
- Translate orally either consecutively or simultaneously from target language to English and vice versa
- Review translation, transcription, or other performed by another individual for quality control purposes

Required Qualifications

- US Citizenship or Permanent Residency
- Must have lived in the United States for 3 of the last 5 years
- At least 1 year of experience in monitoring, translation or related field
- Ability to pass a proficiency test in the target language(s) and English
- Ability to pass a background check

Preferred Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree

All work on this program is based on acceptance by the customer. Applicants selected will be subject to a Government security background investigation and must meet eligibility and suitability requirements.

In addition to exciting career challenges and opportunities, DLS offers a dynamic, multicultural environment and a calendar of fun cultural events. Apply online at: <http://dlservices.force.com/careers>. NO PHONE CALLS, PLEASE. DLS is an Equal Opportunity Employer.