

"Who A Di Don" with Oliver Samuel, for London

We knew something big was on the Horizon for Jamaica's 50th when we heard that the KING OF COMEDY Oliver Samuels was to take a natural step in his glorious career by writing, starring and co-directing his first play, and has created a blockbuster set to break all box offices ... YEP, BREAK ALL BOX OFFICES ...

'WHO A DI DON';

THE MOST HILARIOUS COMEDY TO HIT THE JAMAICAN THEATRE SCENE IN YEARS... FOOT STOMPING, BELLY GRABBING ... UNCONTROLLABLE LAUGHTER ... SUNDAY OBSERVER ... A GOLDEN MASTERPIECE... OLIVER'S GIFT TO JAMAICA IN ITS INDEPENDENCE YEAR ... DAILY OBSERVER Oliver takes the serious donmanship issues that has affected the island over the years and make it into a hilariously funny play. Oliver Samuels set to knock out audience with laughter with his unique one liners that only the maestro can deliver and with co star the ever popular Audrey ... dance hall queen ... Reid with her customary polish performance, plus support Ruth Ho Shing, Kadeem Wilson and Brain Johnson. This is a very funny play that all Jamaicans all over the world must see

Solid performances... a rib tickling experience... THE GLEANER ... UK SHOWS ... JAMAICA 50TH KING OF COMEDY ... Event Detail July 2012

Friday 13th Royal Concert Hall Nottingham, Box office: 0115 989 5555, www.trch.co.uk Saturday 14th ,City Varieties music hall Leeds, Box office: 0113 243 0808 www.cityvarieties.co.uk Sunday 15th ,Alexandra Theatre, Birmingham, Box office: 08448 472 302 www.alexandratheatre.co.uk Saturday 21st and Sunday 22nd ,Hackney Empire, Hackney, London, Box office: 0208 985 2424 www.hackneyempire.co.uk Saturday 28th and Sunday 29th,Broadway Theatre Catford , Box office: 0208 690 0002 www.broadwaytheatre.org.uk