

Usain Bolt 'lands' at Heathrow

The wax figure of Jamaican sprinter Usain Bolt, adopting his signature pose, was officially unveiled at London's Heathrow Airport.

The piece is to go on display at the Madame Tussauds attraction in central London on Monday July 23.

The Associated Press reports that many sporting themes are decorating the cities as the country prepares for the upcoming London 2012 Olympic Games. Source: Jamaica Gleaner