

Trafalgar Travel - Caribbean's leading Travel Agency

{mosmodule phpinc=ttpopup.php,Jamaica's} leading travel Agency, Trafalgar Travel, has copped the prestigious World Travel Award as the Caribbean's leading Travel Agency, yet AGAIN.

Trafalgar Travel, which has offices in Barbados, Trinidad and Tobago, St. Kitts and the Bahamas, was voted the Caribbean's leading travel agency by some 167 thousand travel professionals in over 190 countries. In 2007, Trafalgar Travel created history by becoming the first Caribbean travel agency to win the award, and they have won that award ever since.

According to Graham Cooke, President and Founder of the World travel Awards, "It represents the highest accolade any location or travel company can ever hope to achieve and says more about them than any brochure, picture or testimonial." The World Travel Awards were established in 1993 to acknowledge, reward and celebrate outstanding achievements in various sectors of the international travel industry, and is an incentive for brands to exceed expectations. The highly coveted awards are regarded as the best endorsement of any travel product or service, and have been described by The Wall Street Journal as 'the Oscars of the travel industry'.
