

Jamaica Welcomes New Flights From Delta And Frontier

Jamaica continues to appeal to visitors as an easily accessible Caribbean destination with the introduction of new, seasonal nonstop flights courtesy of Delta Air Lines and Frontier Airlines

Sangster International Airport (MBJ) in Montego Bay will welcome weekly Delta flights from Indianapolis International Airport (IND), and weekly Frontier flights from Denver International Airport (DEN), beginning December 21 and 22, respectively.

“We continue to strengthen our relationship with airline partners and are pleased with these new flight offerings from Delta and Frontier that allow visitors the ease of traveling to Jamaica,” said John Lynch, Jamaica’s Director of Tourism. “We look forward to welcoming our guests to experience our wonderful culture, delectable cuisine and numerous attractions and entertainment activities.”

The first-ever Indianapolis route will operate on Saturdays departing IND at 8:30 a.m., with a 12:25 p.m. arrival at MBJ. The return flight will depart MBJ at 1:25 p.m., arriving into IND at 5:30 p.m. The service will not be available in the months of September and October.

Frontier’s Sunday flights will depart DEN at 8:10 a.m., with a 3:00 p.m. arrival at MBJ. The return flight will depart MBJ at 3:55 p.m., arriving into DEN at 7:35 p.m.
