

3.6 quake in St Catherine, Jamaica

According to the Earthquake Unit at the University of the West Indies, a minor earthquake magnitude 3.6, was felt in the central to eastern section of the island on Sunday at about 8:20pm.

The epicentre of the earthquake was located approximately 15km north of Spanish Town, St Catherine with a focal depth of 7.8km. The quake was reportedly felt in Spanish Town and Old Harbour, as well as in Liguanea and Manor Park in St Andrew.