Tribute to the Legends is a very personal album for Anthony B. With the help of MasterOne Productions and Trainline Records, he was able to pay homage to some of music's greats such as, Ray Charles, Peter Tosh, Elvis Presley, and much more.

"I chose to make a tribute album to show how much these legends influenced my music and my life. I think a lot of young people need to know where we are coming from musically and to help them be better in the future," said Anthony B.

The album is available on iTunes and can also be purchased at MasterOneProductions.com
