

Jonnah delivers at 'Full Black'

Magnum Kings and Queens 2013 winner Jonnah delivered a great account of himself at the recent 'Full Black' stage show at the New Mas Camp in the Corporate Area.

He worked the stage well, earning a 'forward' for his popular Limit Is The Sky single, but the biggest response he received was for This Morning, which had members of the audience waving their hands in solidarity. "Yeah man, it was good to represent for the people, and mi love the response of the people, it was a good experience," he said. Jonnah has signed a recording and booking deal with Multi Music label, which also features dancehall deejay Money Pallet. The deejay also released a new video last week for the Chimney Records-produced single, Limit Is The Sky. "Both my videos are in heavy rotation, This Morning and Limit Is The Sky, sometimes dem all play back-to-back. right now, the ting really tun up. The girls dem love the look of the Limit Is The Sky, the pretty cars, big house, it is a great video," he said. He will be heading to Europe for the first time next year as he has a series of club shows booked for France in January. The deejay is also working on a number of new songs under the Multi Music imprint. He has a new single called Jaguar X Type, where he deejays about his favourite car. He is such a big fan of the Jaguar brand that he actually bought a Jaguar as his first car.
