

KipRich says he came for Cobra not Ryno

According to the artiste, who has three clash victories under his belt, he was prepared for a clash with Mad Cobra.

However, he is happy that Ryno is the one who took home the US$30,000 due to the struggles that he (Ryno) faced after leaving the Vybz Kartel-led Portmore Empire. "Ryno a mi likke friend a swear to God. I came out to deal with the big guns like Cobra because it was me against the odds. Me nuh get fi guh plan nothing fi Ryno. Everything wey yu hear mi talk pon the stage beside Ryno a freestyle, but dem did dun tell Ryno sey him a guh war me," he said. KipRich says he and Ryno spoke minutes before the clash and that was when he (KipRich) was given a hint that Ryno would have been one of his challengers. "Mi wouldn't sey is an ambush, but mi mek him get him run. A nuh like mi couldn't deejay, but mi mek him get him run. A nuff ting did a flow through mi head onstage but mi give him the winnings. Mi nuh sing nothing, yu nuh see dat? Me get my money already enuh, yu zimi. Ryno nuh book for the show, suh him not even get the deposit fi di show. Suh a mi pay Ryno fi duh di show," KipRich said. The artiste says now that Ryno has built up his status as a clashing artiste, he must be prepared to defend the championship belt at Sting 2014. "Hear wah gwaan now. Big up mi fans dem to the fullest; yu win some, yu lose some. Mi give Ryno dah one ya, but next year mi a guh give him the real challenge. Yu haffi grow dem because we alone cyah duh this every year. I came out for the big guns; I was loaded, but a just suh things guh. I would have felt good if I saw Cobra come out and give the people a real show because the people wanted to see KipRich go up against a man who can put on a show. The people dem know mi capabilities already," KipRich said. The deejay also said he would be flooding the airwaves with new music in 2014 in an effort to get some more hit records under his belt. "A just more music because I am not one to be viewed as a December artiste, mi a fight da thing deh," KipRich said. In previous Sting clashes, KipRich had victories over Merciless, Ghost, Round Head, General B and Tony Matterhorn. He was crowned clashing champion at Sting 2012 by veteran clash artiste Ninja Man. Ryno, on the other hand, was clashing for the first time, after being pushed Source: Jamaica Star