

Jamaica bobsled team qualifies for 2014 Sochi Winter Olympics

The Jamaican bobsled team has qualified for the 2014 Sochi Winter Olympics and although it's the first time a Jamaican bobsled team has qualified for the Winter Olympics since 2002, they still may not make it. The team needs to raise funds urgently, to the tune of US$80,000 in order to get the two-man team and equipment to the games. Jamaica's two-man bobsled team of Winston Watts and Marvin Dixon need financial support urgently to make their amazing story continue. Who knows, they could be the story of the 2014 Sochi Winter Olympics. Are there any benefactors out there?
