

Caribbean Ganja website launched

The worldwide spread of the benefits of medicinal marijuana (known as 'ganja' in Jamaica) and its decriminalization around the world has caught the attention of the health conscious and business investors alike.

The people of the Caribbean will not be marginalized; they can access updated information as to the medicinal benefits, laws affecting the growing and distribution of medicinal ganja. www.CaribbeanGanja.com has been created as a repository for such information.

In order to keep this website up to date, it is requested that the public sends all breaking news relating to medicinal ganja and laws around the world, to news@caribbeanganja.com
